Applying God's Word to Life

- 1) What were some of the immature things you did when you were young that you wouldn't do as an adult?
- 2) What's wrong with being Peter Pan for life?
- 3) What were some of the first real responsibilities entrusted to you as a maturing child? How trustworthy were you in doing them?
- 4) What kind of trouble might a sheep get into apart from the loving care of a shepherd?
- 5) What kinds of things did you argue with your parents about when you were growing up? Do you still see your side of the argument the same way?
- 6) How do you view your parents differently now that you are older and more mature?
- 7) What's your attitude toward your spiritual parents right now?
- 8) What are some of the key indicators that you have grown in maturity?
- 9) What are some next steps you would need to take to grow?
