Embrace God in the Present to Build into the Future

From “Our Roots” We Learn — Haggai 2:1-9; 20-24

Because God is with me I:

1) _____ persevere by relying on his _____.

2) Diligently _____ to accomplish His _____.

3) _____ rest in his _____.

4) Confidently _____ in his _____.

Applying God’s Word to Life

- 1) Describe “the good old days” as you remember them — regarding your family, your church, or your spiritual experiences.
- 2) What memories of the “glorious” past, keep you from fully embracing what God is doing in the present?
- 3) What has caused you to get caught up thinking “coulda, shoulda, or woulda”? Why?
- 4) Why are courage and hard work such important aspects of joining God in what He’s doing?
- 5) What causes you the most fear as a child of God?
- 6) How do the promises of God’s impact your present experiences?
- 7) What is God inviting you into right now?
- 8) How are you responding to His invitation?
- 9) How might your current obedience be used by God to accomplish His ultimate plan for you, your family, and for the world?
