His Story Changes History

The Teachings of Our Risen Savior Series

John 20:1-23; 12:23-28

His story is the greatest story because:

1) The challenge to overcome

was _____.

2) The hero willingly _____ to rescue others.

3) His heroism continues through

His _____.

Applying God's Word to Life

- 1) What are some of your favorite stories? Why?
- 2) What parts of your favorite stories make the stories worth telling over and over again?
- 3) What makes the heroes of your favorite stories so appealing to you?
- 4) When you tell your story, when does Jesus enter the scene? What does He do? What changes as a result?
- 5) What is your part in His story right now?
- 6) Who would name you as the hero in their story?
- 7) Who is stuck in "the middle" of their story right now?
- 8) What part does God want you to play in the challenging stories that He has made you aware of?
- 9) How might sharing the seeds of hope that God has entrusted to you change history where you live?
- 10) How will you live out God's call to be a key part of His story as you go out in the power of His spirit?
